[REDACTED] advised on November 2, 1960, that the goal was to have 100 to 150 people from the Washington, D.C., area at the banquet on November 19, 1960.

WF T-11 advised during November, 1960, that there was an Executive meeting of the Jewish Mutual Aid Society (JMAS) at 4402 Georgia Avenue, N.W., on November 2, 1960.
ETHEL WEICHBROD* appeared at the meeting to ask for support for the SOBELL dinner.

After Mrs. WEICHBROD's* departure, there was a discussion of the extent of support the JMAS should give the SOBELL affair. One member was very outspoken and wholeheartedly supported the activities of the SOBELL affair to the extent of changing another meeting. It was recommended that the JMAS give $25 to the SOBELL Committee. The member who recommended the wholehearted support was told that it would have been good if they all felt the same way he did about the SOBELL affair, but the truth of the matter was that the majority of them did not feel that way. One member said that the people who wished to attend the SOBELL banquet may do so, but he saw no reason to postpone any other activities because of it. Another member said that he had refused to go to the SOBELL banquet and was not ashamed to say so. This person seemed to resent that they had been invited to attend the affair to fill up the quota.

The JMAS will be described in the appendix section of this report.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS

[REDACTED]

"The Washington Evening Star" December 19, 1960, page A 14, contained a letter to the editor signed AARON KATZ*. The letter and the editors note following it read as follows:

"For Freeing SOBELL

"It is a tribute to our free America and to our traditions of liberty and love of justice, that thousands of clergymen, legal scholars, statesmen and educators should join together to urge a new trial or Christmas amnesty for MORTON SOBELL. Some commentators noted that with the release of GREENGLASS after 10 years in prison, it didn't make sense to keep SOBELL in jail.

"The Star pointed out editorially that the sentences were different and the circumstances were different: That SOBELL, affirming his innocence, had been sentenced to 30 years while GREENGLASS, admitting his guilt and making amends by 'talking' received a 14 year sentence.

"This point was well taken: the cases are different. But what kind of moral or ethical standards permits the release of one who provided, so he testified, the secret of the A-bomb for the Russians, while prolonging the imprisonment of another who, it is agreed, had no connection whatever with atomic espionage? A man who, the trial record will confirm, was never even accused of giving or receiving any classified information?

"Legal students unite in the belief that SOBELL's conviction and sentence, during the Korean War at the height of McCarthyism, were based on emotion and hysteria rather than reason or justice. Each of five major law reviews which noted study of the case has shown that SOBELL did not receive justice. No law review has held otherwise.

"MORTON SOBELL is a prisoner on our conscience. He is a symbol of our yearning for justice. America's conscience can never be free while SOBELL remains in prison."

"AARON KATZ"

"(Editor's Note: SOBELL's conviction for espionage conspiracy was upheld by appellate courts and the Supreme Court. Appellate courts have rejected his appeals seven times and the Supreme Court has refused to review his case seven times.)"

APPENDIX

WASHINGTON COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

"The Lamp", official organ of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACFPB), in its August, 1949, issue reported that the Northwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (NWCPFB) was established at Seattle, Washington in July, 1949, as a part of the ACPFB. The ACPFB has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Mrs. BARBARA HARTLE, admitted member and officer of the Communist Party in Washington State during the period 1934 to 1954, testified on December 13, 1956, that the NWCPFB in 1954 changed its name and became the Washington Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (WCPFB); that the NWCPFB, the WCPFB and the ACPFB were parts of the same organization; that the WCPFB was controlled lock, stock and barrel by the Communist conspiracy; and that WCPFB officers MARION KINNEY, Executive Secretary; CECELIA CORR, Treasurer; and CLARA A. PAULSON, Recording Secretary, were each known to her as a "Communist".

A mimeographed letter disseminated in November, 1956, with the return address of the WCPFB, stated that, "The Committee is an unaffiliated non-partisan body devoted to the preservation of democratic rights of all foreign born residents of the United States. Its program is to arouse widespread and unceasing public protest against the application of the hundreds of unfair and inhumane provisions of the Walter-McCarran law... We work to effect repeal of the law and to secure enactment of a humane democratic immigration code. We help provide legal defense and public support to any foreign born person requesting our assistance."

JOHN GILMAN addressed a recent meeting, which was called to form a new organization. He spoke at the end of the meeting. He said that the new group's main purpose would be to expose civilian democracy as a hoax. People were spending money, but that the money was going only for waste, he said.

GILMAN spoke of himself as chairman of the Sobell Committee and said that he had worked on the campaign to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

SUBVERSIVE ORGANIZATION CHARACTERIZATION
IS - C

The deadline for this project is May 17, 1961.

Pursuant to instructions set forth in Part II, Section 4, pages 21-23, of the Manual of Rules and Regulation, the NYO must submit annually by June 1st certain information concerning the characterization of organizations.

The above-captioned organization is among those organizations on which a characterization has previously been submitted and should be brought up to date, or one on which a characterization should be submitted.

SA [REDACTED] is assigned to review the existing thumbnail sketch on captioned organization to determine if the sketch is current, or to review the case file and prepare an original sketch where none exists. b7c

All sketches should be rewritten to reflect current status of the organization and should be clear and concise. They should reflect date organization formed; its aims and purposes; subversive initiation, domination, or control; and current status. Information in the sketch should be attributed to "a source" and no "T" symbols nor evaluation of the sources should be reflected in the sketch. The identity and evaluation of the sources used should be reflected at the end of the sketch, with sufficient spacing to indicate it is not part of the sketch. * This should be followed with the statement, "Careful consideration has been given and sources concealed only where absolutely necessary."

* LIST THE SOURCES USED AT THE END OF THE SKETCH UNDER THE HEADING "SOURCES"

Characterizations of organizations will fall in one of the following categories:

- (A) Organizations which have become defunct since June 1, 1960.
- (B) Newly formed organizations which are pending and concerning which insufficient information exists as yet to prepare a thumbnail sketch.
- (C) All active organizations on which sketches are being submitted for approval.

If the case you are reviewing for this project falls in either of the first two categories, merely submit a memorandum for file, with a copy for the thumbnail sketch file (100-90311), reflecting Bureau file and date sketch submitted to Bureau reflecting organization is defunct. If the organization is newly formed, submit a memorandum reflecting Bureau file and a statement reflecting information set out in category "B." This memorandum should be forwarded to SA [REDACTED] Section 41. 87c

If the organization falls within item "C", then prepare an up-to-date sketch, except in those cases where a current sketch has been submitted since April 1, 1961. In the latter case, merely submit a memorandum as above, reflecting date sketch submitted and Bureau file number.

Letters submitting sketches to the Bureau should be undated and prepared as follows:

Re NYlet 3/1/61, and Bu O-1 dated 5/1/61.

ReNYlet set forth information re effectiveness of a photographic surveillance conducted 11/19/60 by the NYO on the National Headquarters of captioned organization.

The album containing the photographs secured on 11/19/60 during the photographic surveillance was exhibited to fourteen informants of the NYO active in CP or other Communist front groups in Manhattan, Bronx, Brooklyn and Queens sections of the CP, and who, by their activity and knowledge of CP personages in their area, could be expected to add to the number of persons already identified. The canvassing of informants resulted in thirteen informants being unable to identify any individual as being known to them, and one informant identifying positively one person previously identified, and three persons as being possibly identical with persons known to the informant.

It is not felt that this canvassing of informants has materially changed the prior opinion of this investigative technique in this instance since it has resulted in one positive identification, which was previously known, and three possible identifications.

On January 4, 1961, [REDACTED] furnished information regarding SIDNEY GUREWITZ, the daughter of HELEN SOBELL by a previous marriage. According to the informant, SIDNEY GUREWITZ and HELEN SOBELL visited MORTON SOBELL over New Year's Day, 1961, and had stayed "four days at the home of Professor MURRAY BRADLEY, a professor at a Negro college."

AT 100-4953

This "Mr. BRADLEY" is undoubtedly Professor MURRAY BRANCH, Professor of Religion, Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia, a Negro college, who has previously been identified by New York and other Offices as speaking in behalf of the MORTON SOBELL committee.

It should further be noted that Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., Atlanta, Georgia, and founder of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, a pro-integration organization having headquarters in Atlanta, was identified as a sponsor at a Washington appeal for Christmas amnesty for MORTON SOBELL.

Reference is made to Bureau letter, February 9, 1960, captioned as above, which instructed the Atlanta Office to review its files for any indication that an active committee affiliated with the National Committee to Secure Justice for MORTON SOBELL was in existence in the Atlanta area.

By letter dated February 19, 1960, Atlanta Office set forth its recommendations in this regard pointing out there was insufficient evidence of a committee functioning to warrant investigation pursuant to Section 87E of the Manual of Instructions.

Considering all information furnished by [REDACTED] and other sources in this area, it is still not apparent there is actually a committee operating and functioning in the Atlanta area. It is noted that HELEN SOBELL continues to visit her husband at the United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, and on the occasions of these visits has established contacts and associates, however, there is no indication to date they are operating as an adjunct of the national committee as indicated by the failure of this group to follow up in solicitations and appeals to some of the people that HELEN SOBELL has contacted such as [REDACTED]. It is believed that the majority of the persons with whom HELEN SOBELL has had contact [REDACTED] are those persons who apparently are friends and social acquaintances of those individuals with whom HELEN SOBELL has spent several days on the occasions of visits to her husband. o2d

Atlanta Office at this time recommends no additional active investigation of this group in the Atlanta area, however, will continue to follow closely information received from other sources and New York informants, and in the event it is apparent the committee is functioning in this area, consideration will then be given to active investigation of this group.

BS 105-6829

"On Sunday May 7, 1961 at 2P.M. I attended a Concert at the Jordan Hall N.E. Conservatory. This was a meeting & concert sponsored by the United Shevchenko (Chev-en-ko) Committee of Boston. This was to celebrate the 100 year anniversary of the death of Tarus Shevchenko - poet painter - (composer?) and great revolutionary democrat of his time. Supposedly he dedicated his life and genius to the liberation of the Serfs against the Czarist Region in Russia and particularly to the peasants of the Ukraine.

"The program was opened by the Chorus of about 50 voices: The Ukrainian Leontovich Chorus, Womens Choral Ensemble & Newark N.J. 'Dnepro' Chorus. They were supposedly directed by P. O. Olchuk --however my impression was that the director was a substitute. The chorus sang one number -- which sounded like a medley and then left the stage.

"A couple of men were taken from the audience and brought to the platform and introduced as the permanent Ukraine delegates to the United Nations. Also a woman with them was removed to a seat in the first row left. I had expected to see her on the platform but the little man who got them to move to the platform sat with her until they finally all left (i.e. the delegates) the platform and returned to their original seats, [REDACTED]

"There was a speaker first who gave a little history of Shevchenko. The program was to express also the great unity & friendship between the Ukrainian people & the U.S.S.R.

"During this time the two delegates sat on the platform -- The young one to the left of the older one -- quite erect and somewhat military -- never a muscle or foot or hand moved. You might say he put on his expression and then just wore it.

BS 105-6829

"The older delegate appeared somewhat uneasy. Occasionally a look of complete resignation would cross his face and he would turn his whole head toward the ceiling. He continuously shifted his weight and his hands were forever distracting me with their restlessness. I wondered at a man who held his position being so unable to sit before an audience of about 300 people. Certainly he was not that lacking in poise. The young delegate very seldom averted his glance from him and then only to look at the woman in the first row. Suddenly I was hit with the impression that this older delegate was completely hemmed in by those who sat around him.

"The older delegate was introduced. Someone in the audience asked if he could speak in English and he said no. He talked for a long time with a great many people unable to understand him.

"He seemed so under a strain. At first he had difficulty with his voice. It seemed like he couldn't get his words out and such a werriness to it, later in his talk a certain vigor returned to his voice. Then too there was an almost reflex action to whatever he did. When he was introduced and the audience clapped he stood before them clapping himself.

"Later they returned to their seats and here again he & the woman seemed hemmed in. They sat in the first 4 outside seats in a row in the center section. First the young delegate entered -- then the woman -- then the older delegate. Then a man whom I believe was WALTER RIBACK, Secretary Ukrainian Am. League. He also sat behind the delegate who spoke on stage -- and appeared to write down everything the delegate said.

[REDACTED] That one of Kenedy's campaign promises was to review the case if he was elected. So they were trying to raise money. She was selling chances for .50. DAVID ANDREWS

On June 21, 1961

Washington, D.C., advised a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that he has received information to the effect that David Andrews, Director of the Methodist Student Center, Boone, North Carolina, was planning to come to Washington, D.C., on June 29, 1961, if Morton Sobell has not been released from prison by that date. Andrews indicated he will kneel outside the iron fence of the White House indefinitely, or until Sobell is released.

Morton Sobell was convicted in March, 1951, with Julius and Ethel Rosenberg in the Federal District Court, Southern District of New York, for conspiracy to commit espionage. The Rosenbergs were executed in June, 1953, and Sobell was sentenced to thirty years' imprisonment.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH
OF LOS ANGELES, 2936 West Eighth Street, Los Angeles, California.

A source advised on May 3, 1961 that the premises of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles have been utilized for meetings by Communist Party members and sympathizers over a period of years. Speakers and lecturers at the church frequently espouse Communist causes or follow the Communist Party line. Communist front group literature is distributed at the church. The church is used by some Communist Party members for "mass concentration" work.

This same infiltration extends to adjuncts of the church such as the Unitarian Public Forum and the Unitarian Fellowship for Social Justice.

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN has been minister of the church since 1943.

Reverend STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN is described in the Fourth Report, Un-American Activities Committee in California, 1948, page 115, as a very active "Communist fronter" and connected with numerous "Communist front organizations and activities".

Membership in the First Unitarian Church does not of itself connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

APPENDIX

EMMA LAZARUS JEWISH WOMEN'S CLUBS, aka., Emma Lazarus Council
Of Jewish Women (ELJWC)

"The Jewish Fraternalist" dated October, 1947, self identified as the official publication of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order (JPFO) of the Interantional Workers Order (IWO), on page 6, contained an article which reflected that the Emma Lazarus Division (ELD) of the JPFO was to hold its first national convention in New York City on November 15, and 16, 1947, after having been first established at a National Women's Conference called three years previously by the JPFO.

The "Morning Freiheit" on January 25, 1951, contained a report on the National Convention of the ELD of the JPFO which took place in New York City on January 20, and 21, 1951. At this convention it was noted the ELD changed its name to Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Clubs (ELF) and adopted a new constitution.

The address of the national office of the ELF is 160 Fifth Avenue, Room 911, New York City.

Both the IWO and the JPFO have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications", revised and published as of January 2, 1957, to supersede Guide published on May 14, 1951, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the "Morning Freiheit":

"1. A 'Communist Yiddish daily.'
(Attorney General FRANCIS BIDDLE, Congressional Record, September 24, 1942, p. 7686.)

"2. 'The Freiheit has been one of the rankest organs of Communist propaganda in this country for almost a quarter of a century.'

APPENDIX CONTINUED

(Special Committee on Un-American Activities,
House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 75.)"

A source advised on May 3, 1961, that the Emma Lazarus Jewish Women's Clubs of Los Angeles are affiliated with the Emma Lazarus Federation of Jewish Women's Club, having national headquarters in New York, New York, which, until the early part of 1951, were known as the Emma Lazarus Division, Jewish People's Fraternal Order. According to the informant, the Emma Lazarus Jewish Women's Clubs, Los Angeles, in about 1952 and early 1953 were also known as the Emma Lazarus Council of Jewish Women.

An informant advised on January 4, 1956, that the Los Angeles Chapter was dissolved on January 3, 1956.
